WALL STREET STILL DULL AND SLUGGISH

All Efforts to Enthuse the Share Market Prove Unavailing-Bonds Irregular.

NEW YORK, March 5 .- Yesterday's disappointment over the non-appearance of the Northern Securities decision still + weighed upon the market today and + threw it back into the rut of duliness and | + + + + + + + + + + + sluggishness which restricted its move-

It was evident that yesterday's brief spurt of activity had resulted in closing up pretty much all the short interest, which was opened as a result of the expected handing down of the Northern Securities decision. It is expected that as the week draws to a close short lines will he put out again in a tentative way, to be covered again on Monday afternoon should the decision still be withheld. The movement of prices today was not consistently in one direction for as much as an hour during the whole session. Prices fluttered for a time either above or below yesterday's level, but without getting far from that in either direction. A more cheerful tone in the foreign markets helped the opening. The London settlement was reported to be progressing favorably and encouragement was expressed that Paris once more showed a disposition to buy stocks in London.

Northern Securities made a further decline and with the persistent selling of Pennsylvania undermined the market and made the closing weak at the lowest.

The sluggish and irregular movement of stocks was communicated to the bond section by sympathy. Total sales, par value, $1.580.000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Colds Are Dangerous.

Gen Electric ... 700 1611/2 151

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight. should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

Contradictions of the reported settlement of the Argentina strike caused at the opening an improved tone in wheat. Notwithstanding a considerable decline at Liverpool, May here was steady, with prices ½c lower to ½c higher at 38½c to 34½c. July was up a shade to ½d%c at 5%c to 59½c. For a time the market ruled quits firm, alded by the strength in coarse grains. Another buil factor was the absence of rain in Kansas and Oklahoma. In addition there was, as compared with last year, a smaller movement in the Northwest. Shorts covered freely in both May and July, the latter option selling up to 30½c, while May sold firm at 50½c. Toward the middle of the day, however, the sentiment changed.
On an attempt of some of the built crowd to dispose of their holdings, the pit crowd auddenly took the selling side of the market. There was apparently no wheat wanted, and before buyers could be secured prices slumper severely. May dropping to 92c, while July sold off to 83½c. Large receipts in Kansas City, which seemed to show that comparatively little alarm is felt in that section as to the growing crop, was apparently the only bear factor. The market railled slightly several times late in the day, but on each upturn commission houses had plenty of selling orders.

Just before the close extreme weakness again developed and May declined to 91%c, a loss of 2%c from the high point of the day. July dropped to 87%c, a decline of 2%c from the top.

Final figures on May were 91%c. July closed at 88c.
Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 215,000 bushels, against 42c cars last week and 390 cars a year ago. The world's visible, according to Bradstreets, decreased 449.00 bushels a year ago. The world's visible, according to Bradstreets, decreased 449.00 bushels a part of the session and the range was between 3½c and 65½c. July sold between 15½c and closed at the low point, with the session for more point with a loss of %glyc. Local receipts were 232 cars, eight of contract firmness in provision early in the session. There was considerable sliquidation both by local and outside holders, late in the day, owing to the weakness in grains. All of the advances were lost, and the close was near the bottom. May pork closed unchanged at $18.57½, Lard was up 3½c at $7.32½, and ribs a shade lower at $7.12½. Estimated receipts for tomorrow. Wheat, 20 cars; corn, 120 cars; cats, 210 cars; hogs, 25,000 head.
